Fredericksburg Society.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., June 2.—Thursday night one of the commencement musicales of Fredericksburg College was given to a large audience in College Hall, participated in by Miss Annie Latimer, Miss Isabelle Williams and Miss Ridout. Green. These young ladies are advanced pupils of the music department of the college, and executed the number with rare skill. Friday night a special programme was presented, and a small admission fee was charged; the proceeds being for the benefit of the athletic association. Both the college orchestra and the college chorus took part, and others participating were Misses Ida Burruss, Helen Timberlake, Sallie Carter, Marjorie Franklin, Kathleen Perry, Lucille Carter, Mrs. J. B. Proctor, Misses Dallas Brown, Margaret Bird, Elizabeth Coghill, M. R. Green, Amelia Woods, Grace Warden, Kate Hassell, Nell Somerville, Mary Lowery. Looking to Better Schools.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MONTEREY, VA., June 2.—The Monterey district school board, at a recent meeting, prepared and forwarded to the State Board an application for a share in the State appropriation for high school purposes, the same to be applied in the establishing of a high school at Monterey, the county seat.

An effort has been made for several years to sustain a school of this sort here, but with meager funds, the result have not been satisfactory.

The town is central as to both county and district, and the school building is commodious and modern. There is no better location for a high-grade, preparatory school in the mountains of Virginia.

The village of McDowell, situated in Stonewall district, is also paying the way to a better school. Steps have been taken toward the erection of a new house, and the outlook is auspicious.
